Peter Beard

Henry Danger (1892-1973)

He was a lonely janitor who lived in Illinois. After his death 15,145 pages of a manuscript called the realms of the unreal were uncovered & thousands of painting & mixed media art were found. No one knew about his amazing art until he died in 1973.

I woke up this morning & I had a dream. I cannot recall the dream but I remember the emotions it gave me so I drew how it made me feel.
