Note from Teacher:

Dear Students,

I hope this lesson finds you doing well. I sure do miss you! I hope you and your family are staying safe. Please know that I am always here to help you in any way that I can. Just email me or message me on DOJO if you need anything. You can always reach out to me if you're in need of something. I have been using some of my free time to read and to do a little spring cleaning. I'll be praying for all of your safety. I love you, guys!

Today's Lesson: Exploring long vowel sounds with oa, ow, ee, and ea.

Word List: seated, keeps, speed, seen, means, clean, groan, roast, bowls, crow, owe, grown.

*Use a sheet of notebook paper to sort the words from the word list into groups. Write the oa words together, the ow words together, the ee words together and the ea words together.

*Then use three of the words from the word list, in three different sentences, that relate to your favorite character from a book or movie. Illustrate your sentences.

*You may continue to access stories from Thinkcentral k6 for supplemental reading.
